

No this must not happen, this stops fair use rights which must not be stopped inorder to protect a companies so called rights to profit. this is another rediculous attempt by media congomorations to assert total control of what happens in my house. if we give them this right what will happen next?